Take an extraordinary look behind the scenes

Conservator-Restorers invite visitors to their virtual working places: Experts from museums, ateliers, private or university studios and workshops, sites and monuments will present the Profession of Conservation-Restoration and their projects to the public.

Conservator-Restorers will explain their actual conservation-restoration projects with case studies to the public:

- To raise awareness of the key role of conservation-restoration in safeguarding cultural heritage with policy makers and civil society (public)
- To share knowledge of the complex activity of this discrete profession as an applied science, which includes humanities, natural science and intervenes with a code of ethics in the many fields of Cultural Heritage
- To highlight the respect and discovery of the values for society through the interventions beyond artists and crafts for ensuring the integrity of the material witness to guarantee the authenticity of cultural heritage for the identification process of the individual
- To make transparent the international quality standards of the profession on this high level of competences for safeguarding Cultural Heritage through member associations in 22 European states; and to clarify how
